

8 QUESTIONS TO ASK YOUR PET SITTER

1. Are they insured? They should be fully insured or insured & bonded.
2. Can they provide references? Make sure these references are not friends/family.
3. Do they have a service agreement? A service agreement protects both parties and lays out expectations.
4. Do they provide an initial consultation? This is an important part of deciding if they are a good fit for you and your pets.
5. What happens if they are sick or have an emergency? They should have another sitter they can call if something happens.
6. Are they a member of a pet sitting association? This will show commitment to their profession.
7. Will other people or dogs be with you? Make sure they are not introducing strangers or other pets to yours, unless otherwise instructed.
8. Why are they a pet sitter? A person passionate about caring for pets will regale you with all the reasons they became a pet sitter!
